EASTFORT, L. I., July 7 .- The good people of this sedate little hamlet, and ectally those who have sat in the ews of the Methodist church, under the eaching of the young pastor, Rev. D. certain recent events that have tirred not only this town, but that of w Canaan, Conn., to the depths.

first lady of his parish because the ect of his devotion had listened to the that he was engaged to another girl.

said that he was engaged to another girl, that he was already a married man, and that he had once been defendant in a breach of promise suit.

Hardly had the echo of his announcement died away than word came from Pound Ridge, N. Y., that Parson Day and the alleged fickle young woman were in reality married on June 20.

All Eastport knew the young minister was going to New Canaan for his bride last week. They knew, for he told them he was going to marry Hattle E. Fancher, the only daughter of George N. Fancher, a prosperous farmer at Pound Ridge, which is just over the State line from New Canaan.

The parishioners prepared a nice reception to the blissful couple as a pleasant surprise to them and a mark of their love for their pastor. He steeped off the train alone and dejected. The big tent that had been hoisted for the festivities, the sponge cake and other featl dishes were quietly disposed of, for Pastor Day said mournfully that the wedding had been postponed.

When Sunday came the largest congresation that ever sat in the pews greeted the minister, and there he told whe story that Miss Fancher had refused to marry him because of the faise rumors that were going about.

The Eastporters had not ceased to marrye him because of the faise rumors that were going about.

The Eastporters had not ceased to marrye when, yesterday, Miss Fancher herself told some inquirers at her father's house, among them several news paper reporters, that she was the wife of Parson Day.

"We were married before a dozen of my relatives at noon on June 20 by my uncle, Rev. Henry S. Hull, of Canarsie." said the young woman, adding with a flashing eye:

"But I will never live with him, and it is not because I have listened to sto-

"In October he was appointed to the Eastport church. He came over in December and asked for my daughter's hand, and I assented. Next October was set for the wedding, but in Mayhe wanted to hasten it, as he said he was fearful of compromise with a young woman in his boarding-house.

"After much persuation Hattle agreed and the marriage took place before the family June 20. He stayed over night, but next morning my daughter declared she would not live with him, and I drove him to the station alone.

"I don't know why Hattle will not live with Mr. Day. She will give no explanation. Last Thursday he was here again, asking my daughter to sign and the people of Eastport and Pound Ridge, New Canaan and Norwalk, where all of the parties are well known, are bewildered. It is Pastor Day's turn.

TOUGHS TO BE SUPPRESSED

Mayor Gilroy Acts on the Hebrews Committee's Complaint.

to Afford Protection.

which the Hebrews living in the vicinity and neighboring streets have been subjected for a long time have at last been brought to the attention of the authoriheaded by Register Ferdinand Levy, and an effort will be made to afford the protection which these poor people have in broad daylight by the corner loaters who concregate in squads throughout the neighborhood.

Complaints had been made to the police, but the outrages became of more frequent occurrence and of a more agravating character.

During the last three weeks scores of Hebrew men, women and children in the Precinct have been maitreated. There seemed to be no redress.

The poor people called on Register Levy for advice and appealed to him for help, with the result that a mass-meeting was held in the Forsythe street synagogue last Sunday night, which resolved to lay the matter before Mayer Gillry, Committee called on the Mayer Committee called on the cal solved to lay the matter before Mayor Gilroy.

The Committee called on the Mayor yesterday, and was given an audience. The Mayor was told of the condition of things, and he assured the Committee that should the charges be made in writing he would attend to the matter without delay.

The facts as set forth here were reduced to writing and sent to Mayor Gilroy this morning. He at once forwarded them to the Police Commissioners with an urgent request to investigate and apply a remedy forthwith.

The charges were signed by Register Levy, Jacob Katz and Raphael Rothstein, the committee.

Levy, Jacob Katz and Raphael Rothstein, the committee.

Mr. Levy, in speaking of the matter to an "Evening World" reporter, said:
"These poor people fied the realm of the Czar to escape unbearable thraidom and systematic persecution. In this free country, they had expected that they would be permitted to enjoy unmolested
the privileges of native-born citizens, and that they would be protected in whatever pursuits they chose to follow.
"They have been treated outrageously,
but not, of course, by the sanction of the law, and they have a right to and do demand a remedy.

"Mayor Gilroy has assured me that such outlawry will not be tolerated, and that the gangs of toughs will be suppressed.
"I have heard it stated that Alderman pressed.

"I have heard it stated that Alderman Noonan has winked at the outrages and protected these ruffians through his pelitical influence. Such is really not the case. Alderman Noonan is the friend of these poor people. He has and, I am satisfied, will, protect them in any way, he can."
